STAT

On the occasion of your leaving my office at the conclusion of your tour of duty on the Inspector General's staff, I want to personally express to you my appreciation for your fine work during this period. Although pressure of work prevented me from dealing personally with many members of the Inspector General's staff, I, nevertheless, am the direct recipient of the products of your work.

My best wishes go with you in your new assignment as Deputy Director of Communications.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
